The Stock Market Dull and Irregular.

A MARKED DECLINE IN BUSINESS.

Gold Steady at 114 5-8 and Money Easy at 2 1-2 a 3 Per Cent.

WALL STREET, The stock market to-day was dull, uninteresting and unattended by fluctuations worthy of ex-tended comment. It wore the weary look which generally precedes an advance, and has tired even operators into a frame of mind that will give cordial welcome to a change for the better. As an illustration of this fact, Pacific Mail, the loot-ball of the street, found new adherents, and the majority of stocks closed stronger. While it would be unsafe to predict an immediate rise it is easy to recognize in the tone of conversation among business men a confidence in early firmer prices. Wabash declined 15% per cent, closing on Saturday at 13%, opening to-day at 12% and ending at 11%, but the influences bearing upon the stock are exceptional, and until pending questions are de-termined to the satisfaction of the creditors it is ot likely to resume its old place.

THE COURSE OF PRICES. character of the rest of the market:—Western Union opened at 72%, moved up to 72% and closed at 72%. Pacific Mail sold at 32% and ended at 33%. It was said on the street that Mr. Russell Sage was the principal buyer. Northwestern common sold at 44% a 44%, with an ending at 44. The pre-lerred stock ended at 56%. St. Paul began at 34%, dvanced to and closed at 35 %. Hannibal and St. Joseph is without present feature, yet is held in reserve as one of the elements of an advance; the close was made at 21. Onlo and Mississippi was pressed down to 26%. C., C. and L. C. sold at 5% 8 6 a 5%.

THE SALES at the Stock Exchange amounted to 130,000 shares, which were generally distributed among the iol-lowing stocks:—New York Central and Hudson, 140; Eri ., 1,300; Lage Shore, 5,100; Chicago and Pittsburg, 280; Northwestern, 8,500; do. preferred, 800; Rock Island, 1,400; Pacific Mail, 30,400; St. Paul. 6,600; do. preferred, 800; Onios, 17,100; Western Union, 22,100; Wabash, 12,300; Union Pacific, 18.400: C., C. and I. WALL STREET NOTES.

The pusiness on the street continues dull. The rates exacted by the Governing Committee of the Exchange for trading prevent active operations. There seems, however, to be a disposition to "buil" stocks, and any indication of a buying movement sends up the prices of the active list, having the same effect as the rays of the warm movement sends up the prices of the active list, having the same effect as the rays of the warm sunlight on quicksilver. It was currently whispered that an old antagonist of Pacific Mail was yesterday buying the stock, and straightway it advanced one per cent. However the present snarl may terminate in the company's affairs, one thing is certain, they have sustained the orunt of evil report, and it may be fairer fortunes may yet smile upon her sails. Toledo and Wabash had a forther decline—another "black eye!"—in the parlance of the street, and sold down to 11½, under rumors of a foreclosure of a mortgage on a certain division which covers a portion of the main line. This could not be verified, however, and it may only be a story of the bears, who have no hope of heaven, and like the pullosoppy of Heliogadains for a change.

There were no notable changes in the price of gold, and foreign exchange was stendy. The efforts made by the Pennsylvania Railroad in Philadeibhia to increase railway facilities for the Centennial was the cause of much discussion, and it was generally conceded if some of our New York lines would be a good omen. Which will be the first to take a lesson from a rival?

Mr. Lewis, the trustee in the matter of the bankruptcy of Jay Cooke & Co., is desirous to remind the creditors of that firm who reside in and apout New York that he is now paying a dividend of five per cent to all having claims on that house. The trustee's office is at No. 114 South Third street, Philade'phia, in the former banking house of the late firm.
